

MHA Women's History Month 2019

June Conklin-Lockwood

June Conklin-Lockwood is a member of the Mandan, Hidatsa, Arikara Nation. She is one of the first women pastors with Church of God organization. She worked with families and communities leading them to Creator by his son Jesus. Pastor Lockwood was focused and dedicated to providing guidance to all who needed it. She has successfully pastored the Indian Mission and organized the Annual Church of God camp meetings since 1984. At times, she has been contacted by the MHA Nations local programs to help with guidance in our communities. She noticed a shortage of pastors and with the Lord's guidance she recruited pastors. She knows any people throughout Indian Country. Throughout the years, she was contacted by other tribes and would lend her service as a pastor to other areas in Indian Country. She has joined efforts to help all pastors from Indian Country to lead the believers to the Great Creator. She received her certificate to become a Pastor from the Pentecostal Church of God. She is now retired and still enjoys teaching and hearing the Good News.
