Press Release

Grand Opening for Three Affiliated Tribes Public Safety & Judicial Center

Tuesday, May 9th at 11am.

[New Town, ND] May 3, 2017: A grand opening ceremony for the newly constructed Three Affiliated Tribes Public Safety and Judicial Center will be held at 11am on Tuesday, May 9th, 2017 at 609 Main Street in New Town, ND. The new $17.2 million facility will house the offices of the tribal law enforcement, court, and outside agencies to help serve the Mandan, Hidatsa and Arikara Nation. The 29,600-square foot building includes a ceremonial rotunda, law enforcement center, 911 call center, and three court rooms. The state of the art building also includes an energy efficient geothermal well heating system. The center will provide a substantial impact to the MHA Nation in providing both public and community safety. It is also the first time in the nation's history it has owned a facility of this type of magnitude. A meal and refreshments will be served following the ribbon cutting ceremony.

The event is open to the public; however, parking is limited. Those wishing to attend are asked to park at the Elbowoods Memorial Health Center parking lot located at 1058 College Drive, New Town, ND 58763 where shuttle buses will be provided for transportation to the facility.
